ELSEVIER

HEALTH policy

Health Policy 33 (1995) 241–242

Volume contents

Volume 33 (1995)

Sachiko Takeuchi, Takehito Takano, Keiko Nakamura (Japan) 1
Health and its determining factors in the Tokyo megacity

Leona van Roijen, Marc A. Koopmanschap, Frans F.H. Rutten, Paul J. van der Maas (The Netherlands) 15
Indirect costs of disease; an international comparison

Stirling Bryan, Justin Keen, Nicole Muris, Gwyn Weatherburn, Martin Buxton (UK) 31
Issues in the evaluation of picture archiving and communication systems

Katrien Kesteloot, Sabrina Pocceschi, Emmanuel van der Schueren (Belgium) 43
The reimbursement of the expenses for medical treatment received by 'transnational' patients in EU-countries

Magnus Johannesson (Sweden) 59
A note on the depreciation of the societal perspective in economic evaluation of health care

Book Reviews and Books Received 67

News 75

Special Issue: Economics, Public Health and Health Care Purchasing: Reinventing the Wheel?

Guest Editors: Cam Donaldson and Julie Ratcliffe

Preface 77

Cam Donaldson (UK) 79
Economics, public health and health care purchasing: reinventing the wheel?

Sara Twaddle, Andrew Walker (UK) 91
Programme budgeting and marginal analysis: application within programmes to assist purchasing in Greater Glasgow Health Board

Neil Craig, David Parkin, Karen Gerard (UK) 107
Clearing the fog on the Tyne: programme budgeting in Newcastle and North Tyneside Health Authority

Peter Brambleby (UK) 127
A survivor's guide to programme budgeting

David R. Cohen (UK) 147
Messages from Mid Glamorgan: a multi-programme experiment with marginal analysis

Hamish Wilson, Sheila Scott (UK) 157
PBMA — its role in the future purchasing arrangements for health care services

Lynne Madden, Ruth Hussey, Gavin Mooney, Elaine Church (Australia, UK) 161
Public health and economics in tandem: programme budgeting, marginal analysis and priority setting in practice

Tomonori Hasegawa, Yuko Maeda, Kazuo Yamakawa, Takashi Tsuchida, Shinichi Oshima (Japan) 169
Donor card registration system in Japan: an obstacle to procuring kidneys for transplantation

Magnus Johannesson (Sweden) 179
Economic evaluation of health care and policymaking

Nguyen Tran Hien, Le Thi Thu Ha, Susan B. Rifkin, E. Pamela Wright (Vietnam, United Kingdom, The Netherlands) 191
The pursuit of equity: a health sector case study from Vietnam

Kees Schaapveld, Astrid M.J. Chorus, Rom J.M. Perenboom (The Netherlands) 205
The European health potential: what can we learn from each other?

Michael Drummond, Greg Stoddart (United Kingdom, Canada) 219
Assessment of health producing measures across different sectors

Book Reviews and Books Received 233

Contents of Volume 33 241

Author Index 243

Subject Index 245